Situational Awareness Report 5 May 2016 As of 2:45 p.m.

```
<p class="MsoNormalCxSpFirst" align="center"
style="mso-margin-top-alt:auto;mso-margin-bottom-alt:auto;mso-add-space:auto;text-a style="color:black">Situational Awareness Report<o:p /> <p class="MsoNormalCxSpMiddle" align="center"
style="mso-margin-top-alt:auto;mso-margin-bottom-alt:auto;mso-add-space:auto;text-a style="color:black">5 May 2016<o:p /> <p class="MsoNormalCxSpMiddle" align="center"
style="mso-margin-top-alt:auto;mso-margin-bottom-alt:auto;mso-add-space:auto;text-a style="color:black">As of 2:45 p.m.<o:p /> <p class="MsoNormalCxSpMiddle" align="center"
style="mso-margin-top-alt:auto;mso-margin-bottom-alt:auto;mso-add-space:auto;text-a style="color:black"> <o:p /> <p class="MsoNormalCxSpMiddle" align="center"
style="mso-margin-top-alt:auto;mso-margin-bottom-alt:auto;mso-add-space:auto;text-a style="color:red">State EOC Activation Level: Level IV – Crisis Action Team (CAT)<o:p />
<p class="MsoNormalCxSpMiddle" align="center"
style="mso-margin-top-alt:auto;mso-margin-bottom-alt:auto;mso-add-space:auto;text-a style="color:black">WebEOC Incident: 16-012 Severe Weather - Flooding — Statewide — April-May 2016<o:p />   Situation:  A strong weather system moved through Louisiana bringing several rounds of heavy rain over the last couple of days. Total rainfall amounts ranged from 3 to 10 inches during this period. GOHSEP received numerous reports of street flooding, down trees and wind damages. River flooding is the remaining threat throughout the State and detailed
```