Private Sector Advisory - Safety Remains Top Priority as FEMA and its Federal Partners Continue to Support States Impacted by Tropical Storm Barry

U.S. Department of Homeland Security

Federal Emergency Management Agency

Public-Private Partnerships Team

Congressional and Intergovernmental Affairs Division

Office of External Affairs

FEMA-IGA@fema.dhs.gov

"Please don’t take your eye off the storm. Stay out of the water. Keep your family safe and don’t put first responders at risk by making bad choices." - Acting Administrator Pete Gaynor

Heavy rainfall continues as the storm moves through northern Louisiana and into Arkansas. The risk of flooding remains high. Residents should remain vigilant and follow instructions from local officials. FEMA and other federal agencies, and voluntary organizations have personnel and commodities ready to support response efforts as needed.