August 27, 2012 -- BATON ROUGE, La. --

Today, Department of Environmental Quality requested a fuel waiver from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency that would make it easier for gas stations to maintain their fuel supply.