

Governor Jindal Requests Major Disaster Declaration for Louisiana

Aug 29, 2012

BATON ROUGE – Today, Governor Bobby Jindal sent a letter to the federal government requesting an expedited major disaster declaration for the state as a result of the widespread damage and continuing impacts of Hurricane Isaac.

The widespread impact of Hurricane Isaac has escalated to a point that meets the requirements of the Stafford Act for an expedited major disaster declaration.

Below is the Governor’s letter to the federal government:
